Web Developer

About Me

¡Hello! I'm Isaac, a growing web development enthusiast. I have completed one boot camp and am currently immersed in three more, in addition to my self-taught learning. My passion for programming is reflected in the 10 repositories I have created on GitHub, where I experiment with new technologies. I am excited for the opportunity to apply my skills in challenging and collaborative projects. Ready to contribute to your team's success with my dedication and enthusiasm!

Education

I have trained through bootcamps offered in dio.me aside, I am graduated as a computer technician.

Bootcamps:

- Bootcamp WEX - Desenvolvimento .NET e QA
- Orange Tech +
- Python Data Analytics
- Potência Tech iFood - Desenvolvimento de Jogos
